

Lap Band at a Glance

Lap Band at a Glance

Among the Lap Band Advantages is the fact that this form of weight loss operation offers reduced pain and less recovery time compared to other similar procedures like gastric bypass surgery. One will also find among the Lap Band Advantages that the procedure most oftentimes will take as little as 30 minutes to an hour.

While it is not recommended to have reversing with the procedure another of the Lap Band Advantages is the procedure is adjustable and can be reversed if a patient decides he or she is not satisfied with the results. The lap band can also be removed for pregnant women should they choose to do so.